PRAYER ON THE DEATH OF H.M. QUEEN ELIZABETH

by Rabbi James Baaden and Rabbi Kathleen de Magtige Middleton

Our God whose dominion is everlasting, we mourn the death at the age of 96 of Queen Elizabeth, who has gone to her eternal rest. And we ask you to bless our Sovereign, King Charles.

As we mourn the Queen, our "Sovereign Lady" for seventy years, we remember her:

We remember the young Princess Elizabeth, once heir to the throne, who with her parents, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, gave leadership and inspiration, not least to the Jewish community, throughout the dark years of the Second World War. We remember her accession to the throne in 1952: a young woman in her 20s, she quickly became a figure of exceptional stability and continuity, accompanying the people of Britain and the Commonwealth throughout our own lives.

We remember the dignity and humility, and the peaceful presence, which she brought to the affairs of state and to her everyday duties as Monarch for seven decades, demonstrating a warm and unswerving commitment to the real diversity of the human family.

We remember and take strength from her outstanding example of dedication, benevolence and good humour, bringing strength to countless individuals in their everyday lives, most recently during the years of the Coronavirus pandemic.

With fondness, we recall her love of nature and the outdoor world, and the important place of animals in her life. As a British faith community, we acknowledge the freedoms and rights afforded us in this United Kingdom: to be Jews in the ways we wish, and to practise Judaism in all its own diversity, and we remember our own warm and unswerving commitment to a society that works together for justice and peace.

*We honour the memory of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, who helped so many of us to realise our own commitments as good citizens and as good Jews by her example of dedication to the service of her people, giving us hope through times of turmoil and change. And we ask God to comfort the sorrowing hearts of His Majesty the King and all the members of the Royal Family. Amen
